

Streatery Parklet and Pick-Up Zone

strē·der·ē pārk·let (noun) Reuse of parking spaces adjacent to the sidewalk for outdoor dining space, and designated curbside zones for people picking up for takeout or delivery

Open Streatery and Parking Lot Dining

ō·pən strē·der·ē

(noun) Outdoor dining space on streets and/or parking lots that are closed to vehicular traffic

Bikeway

bīk·wāy

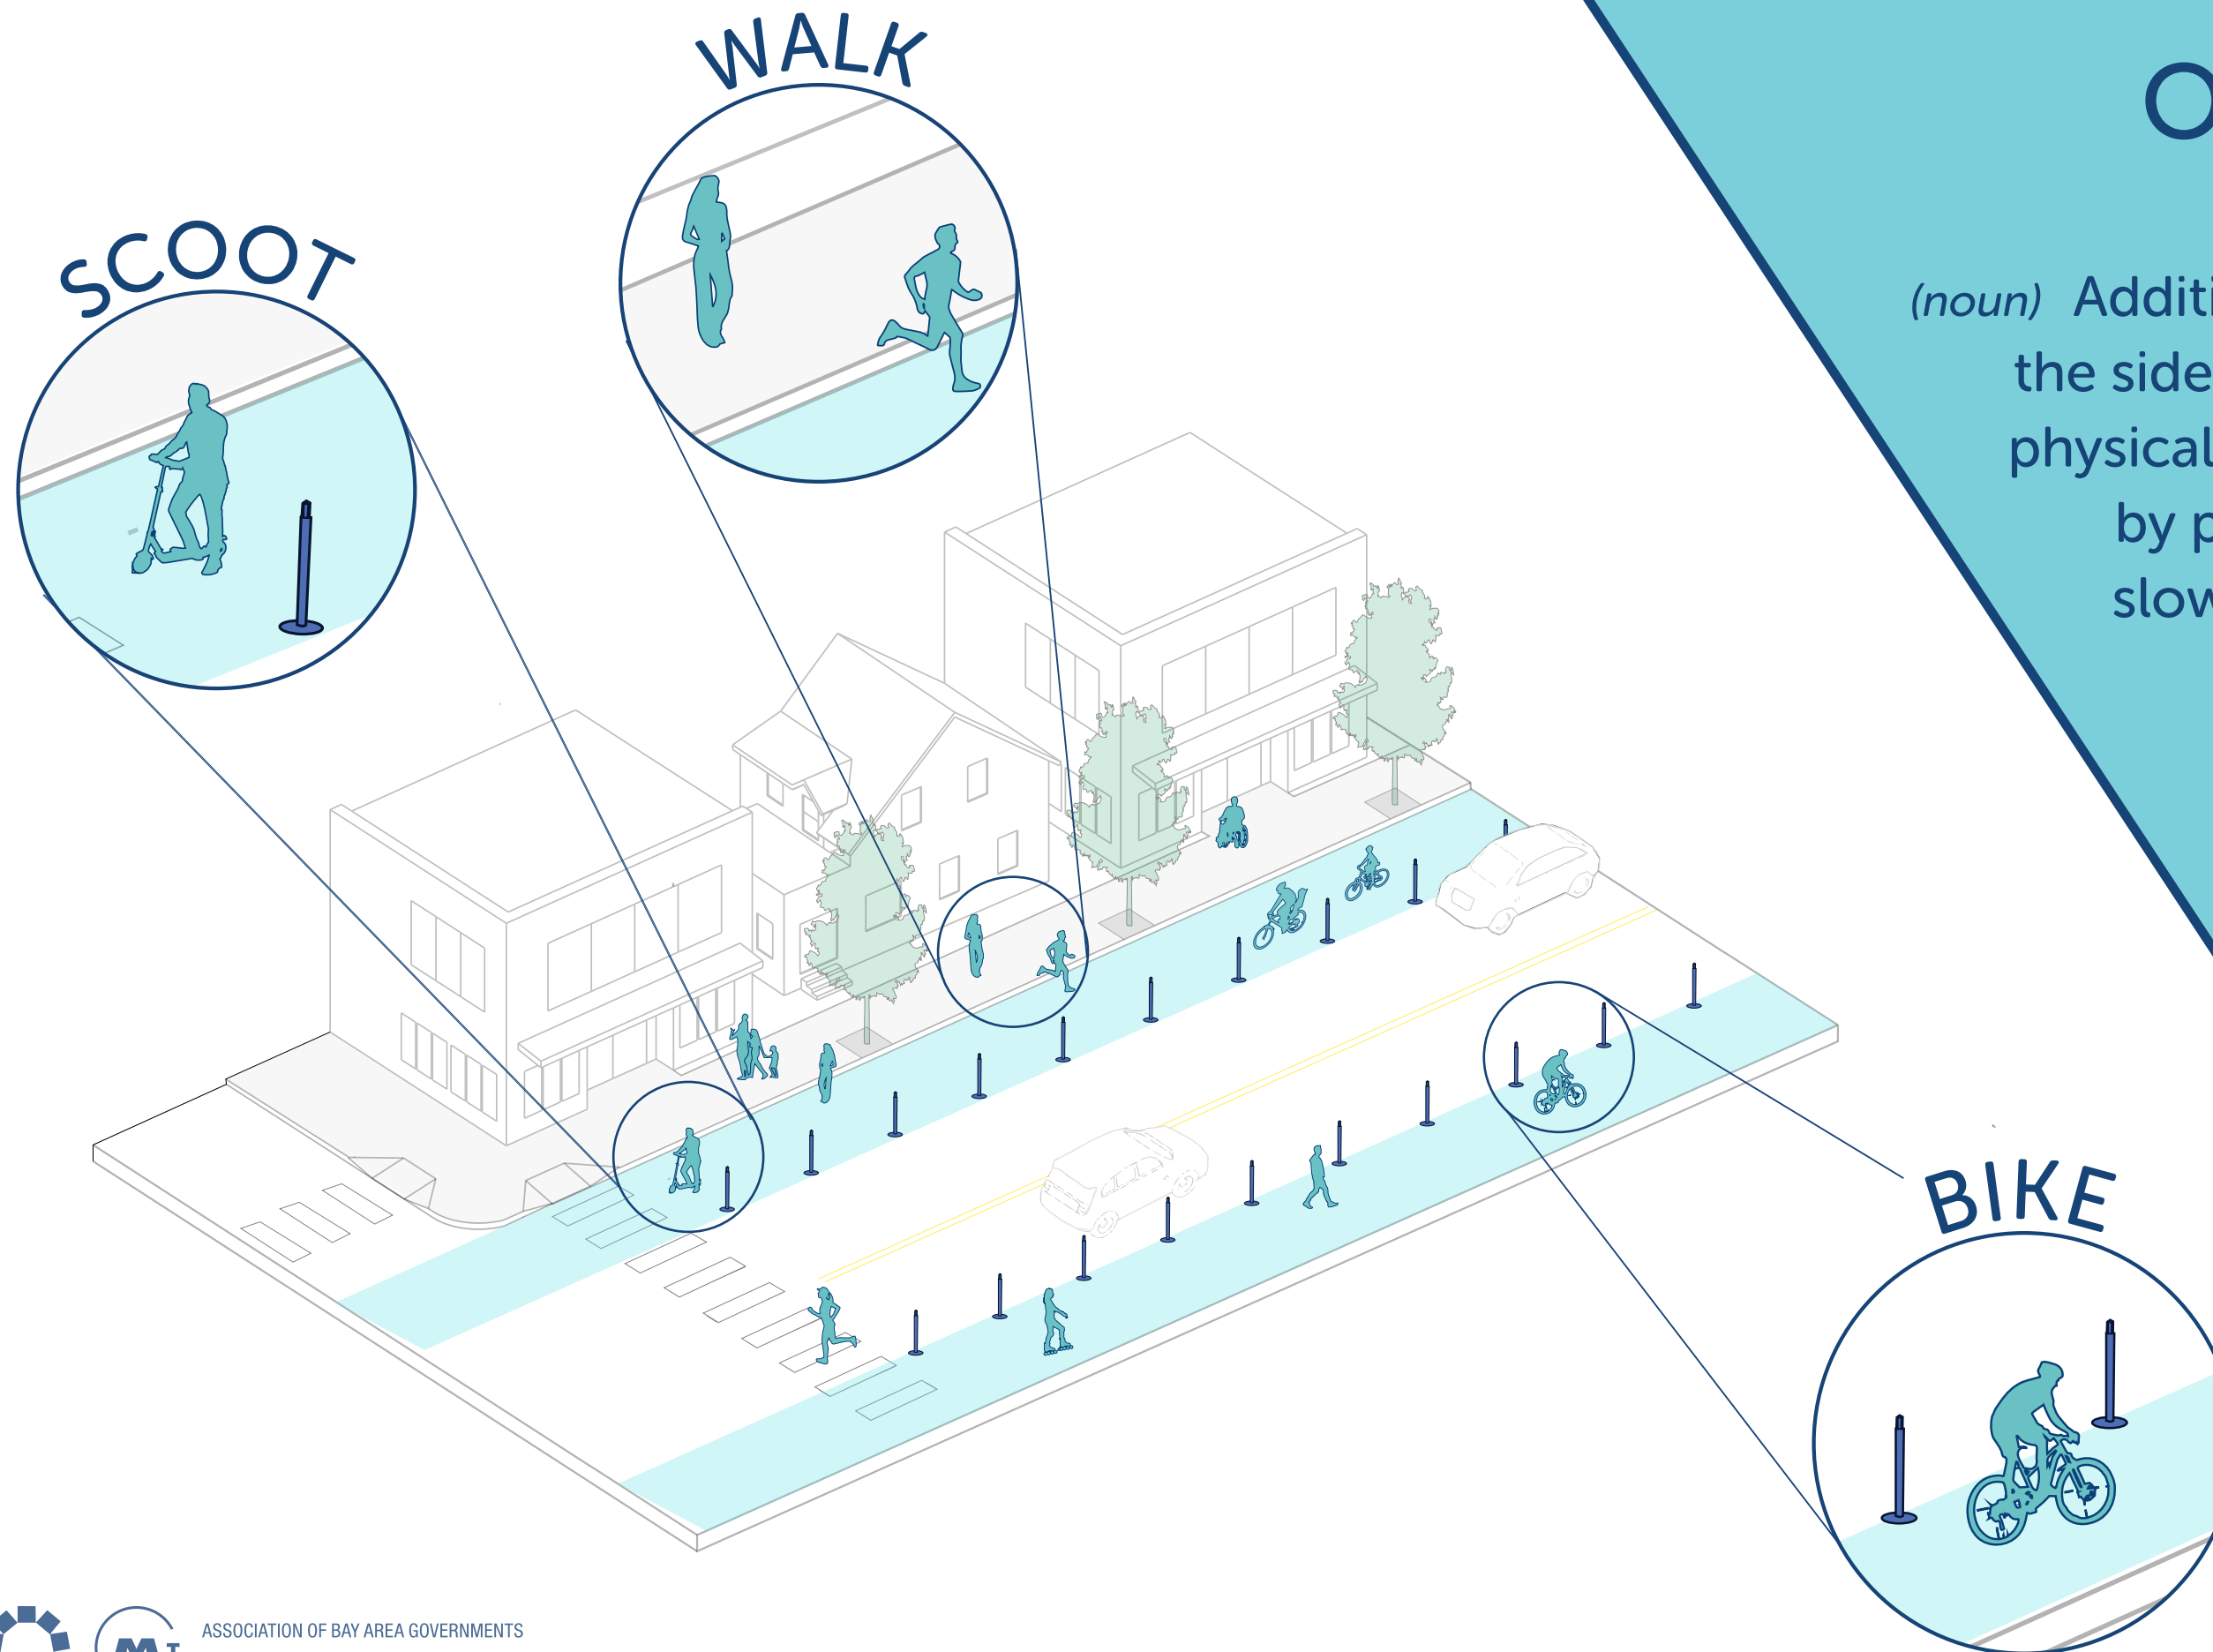

(noun) Safe space for biking and rolling that is separated from vehicle traffic

Open Curb

ō·pən kərb

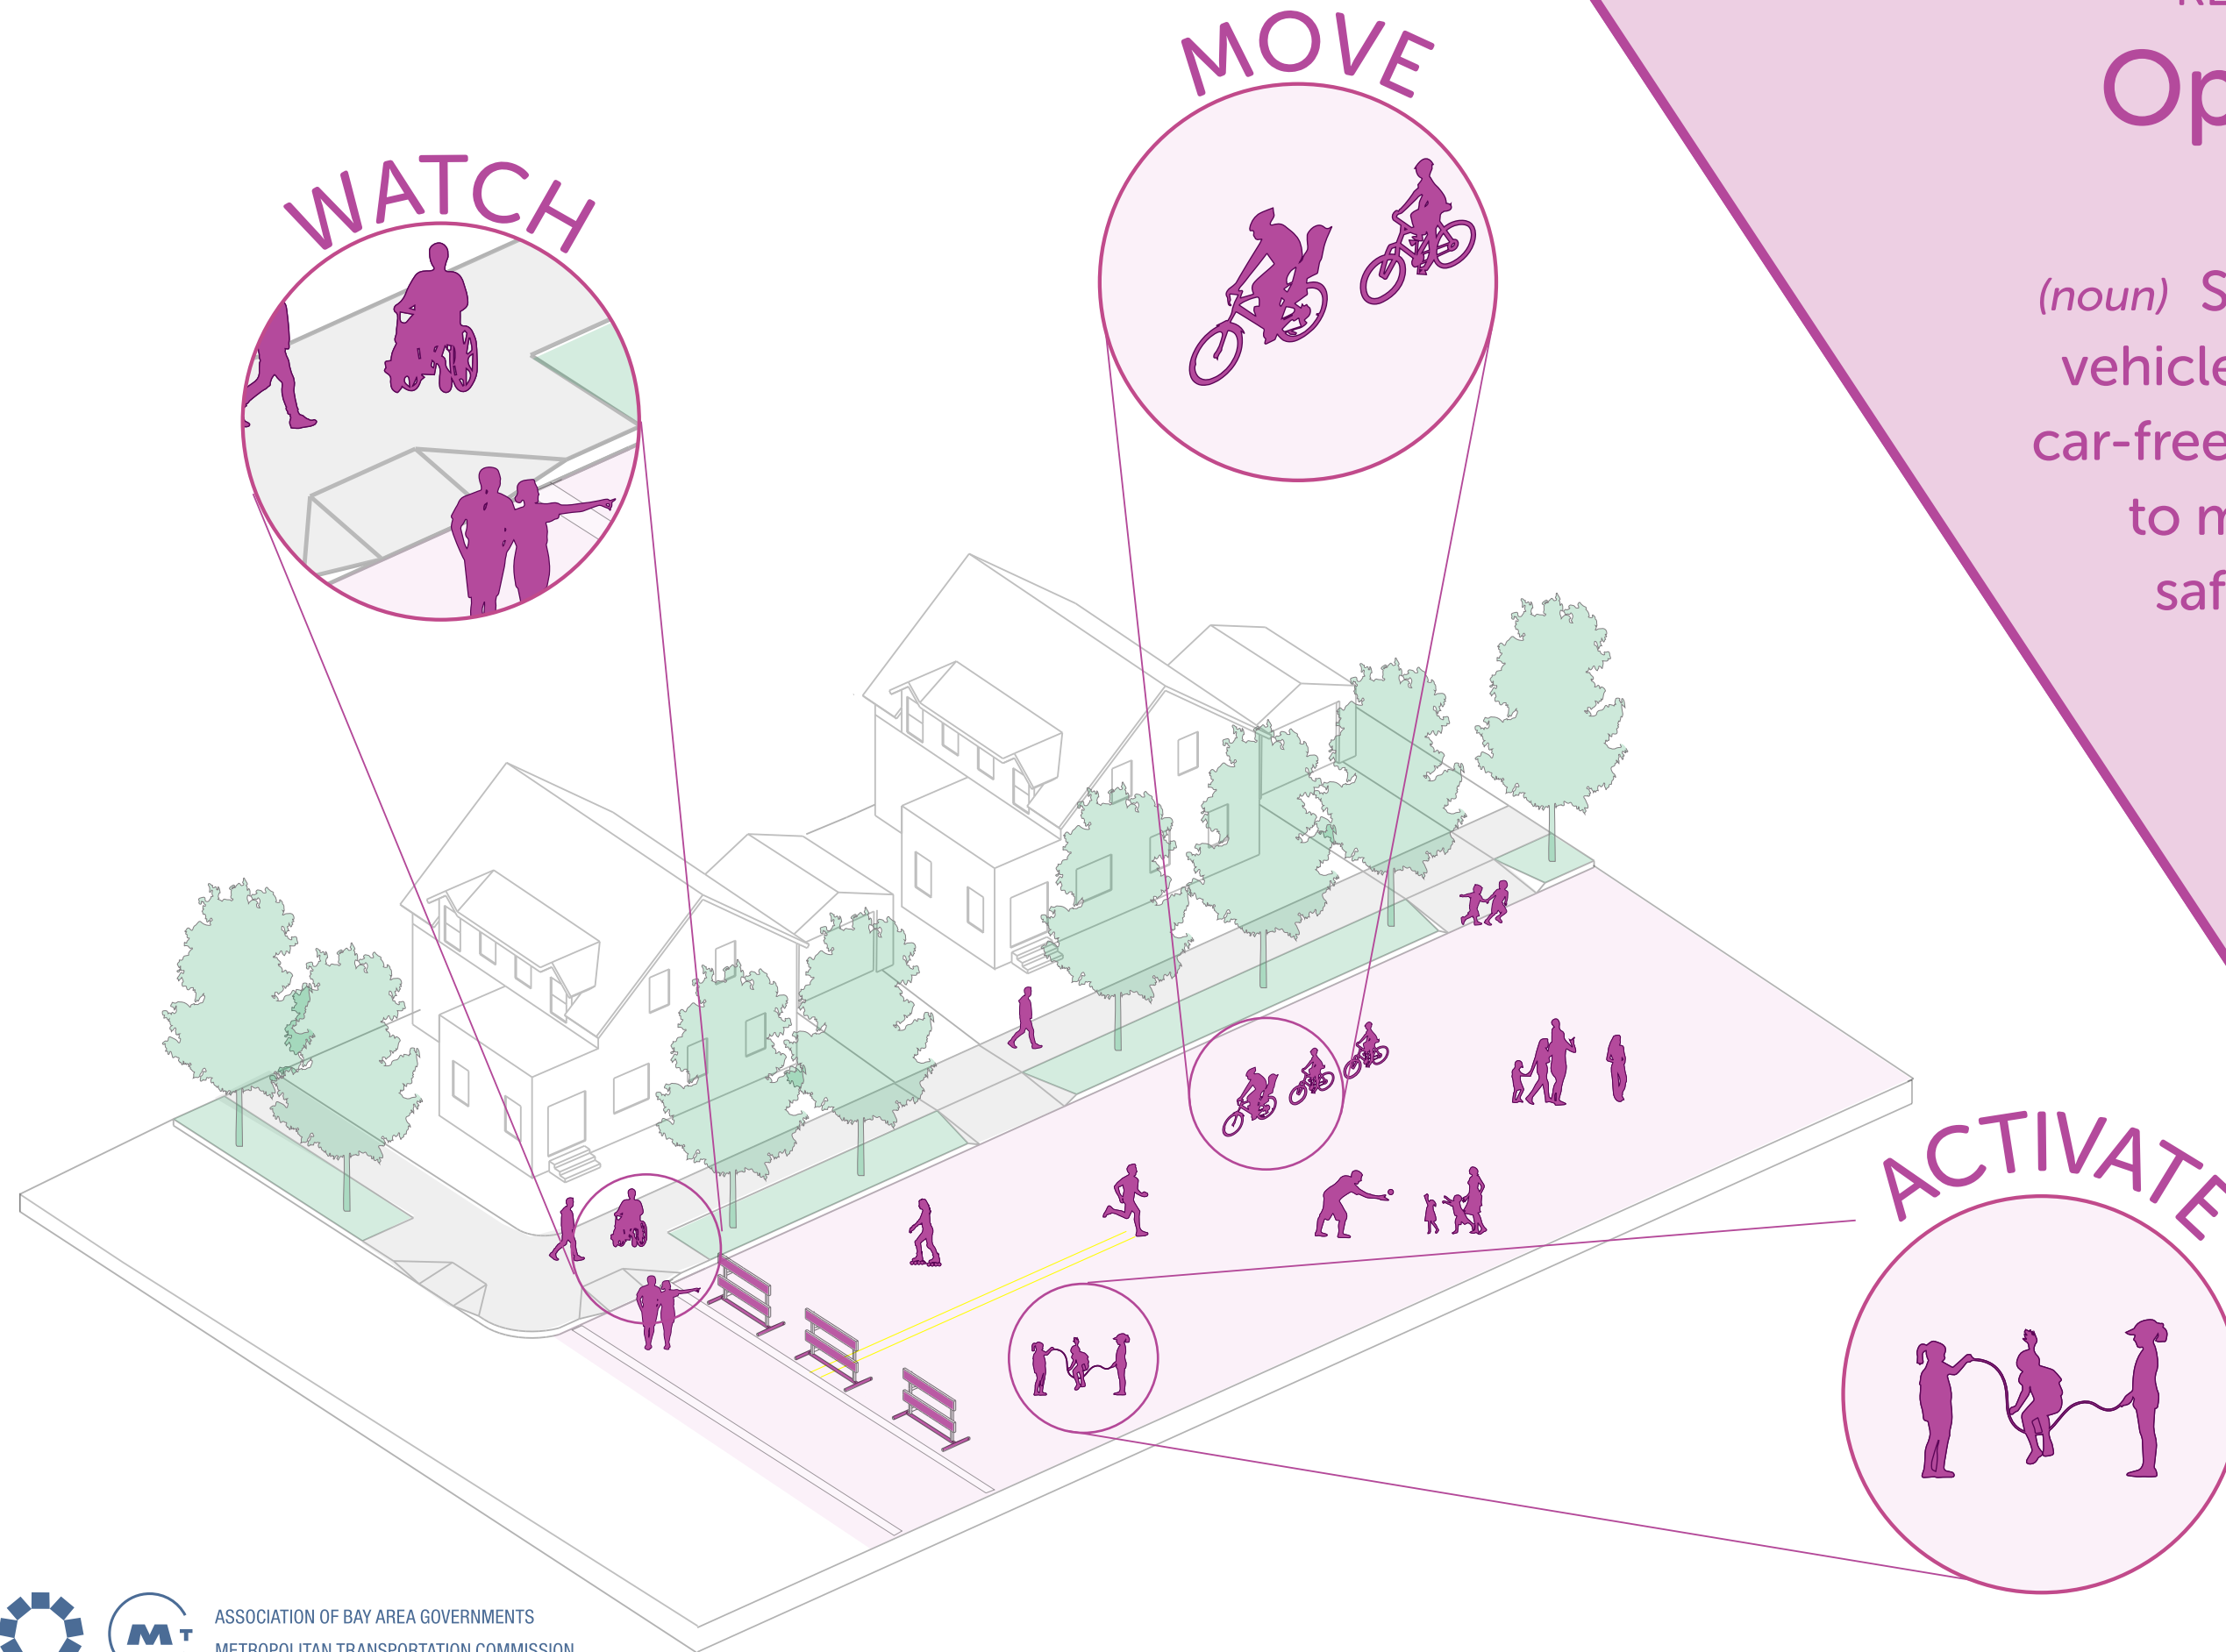

(noun) Additional space next to the sidewalk to encourage physical distancing, shared by people walking and slowly biking or rolling

Open Street

o·pən strēt

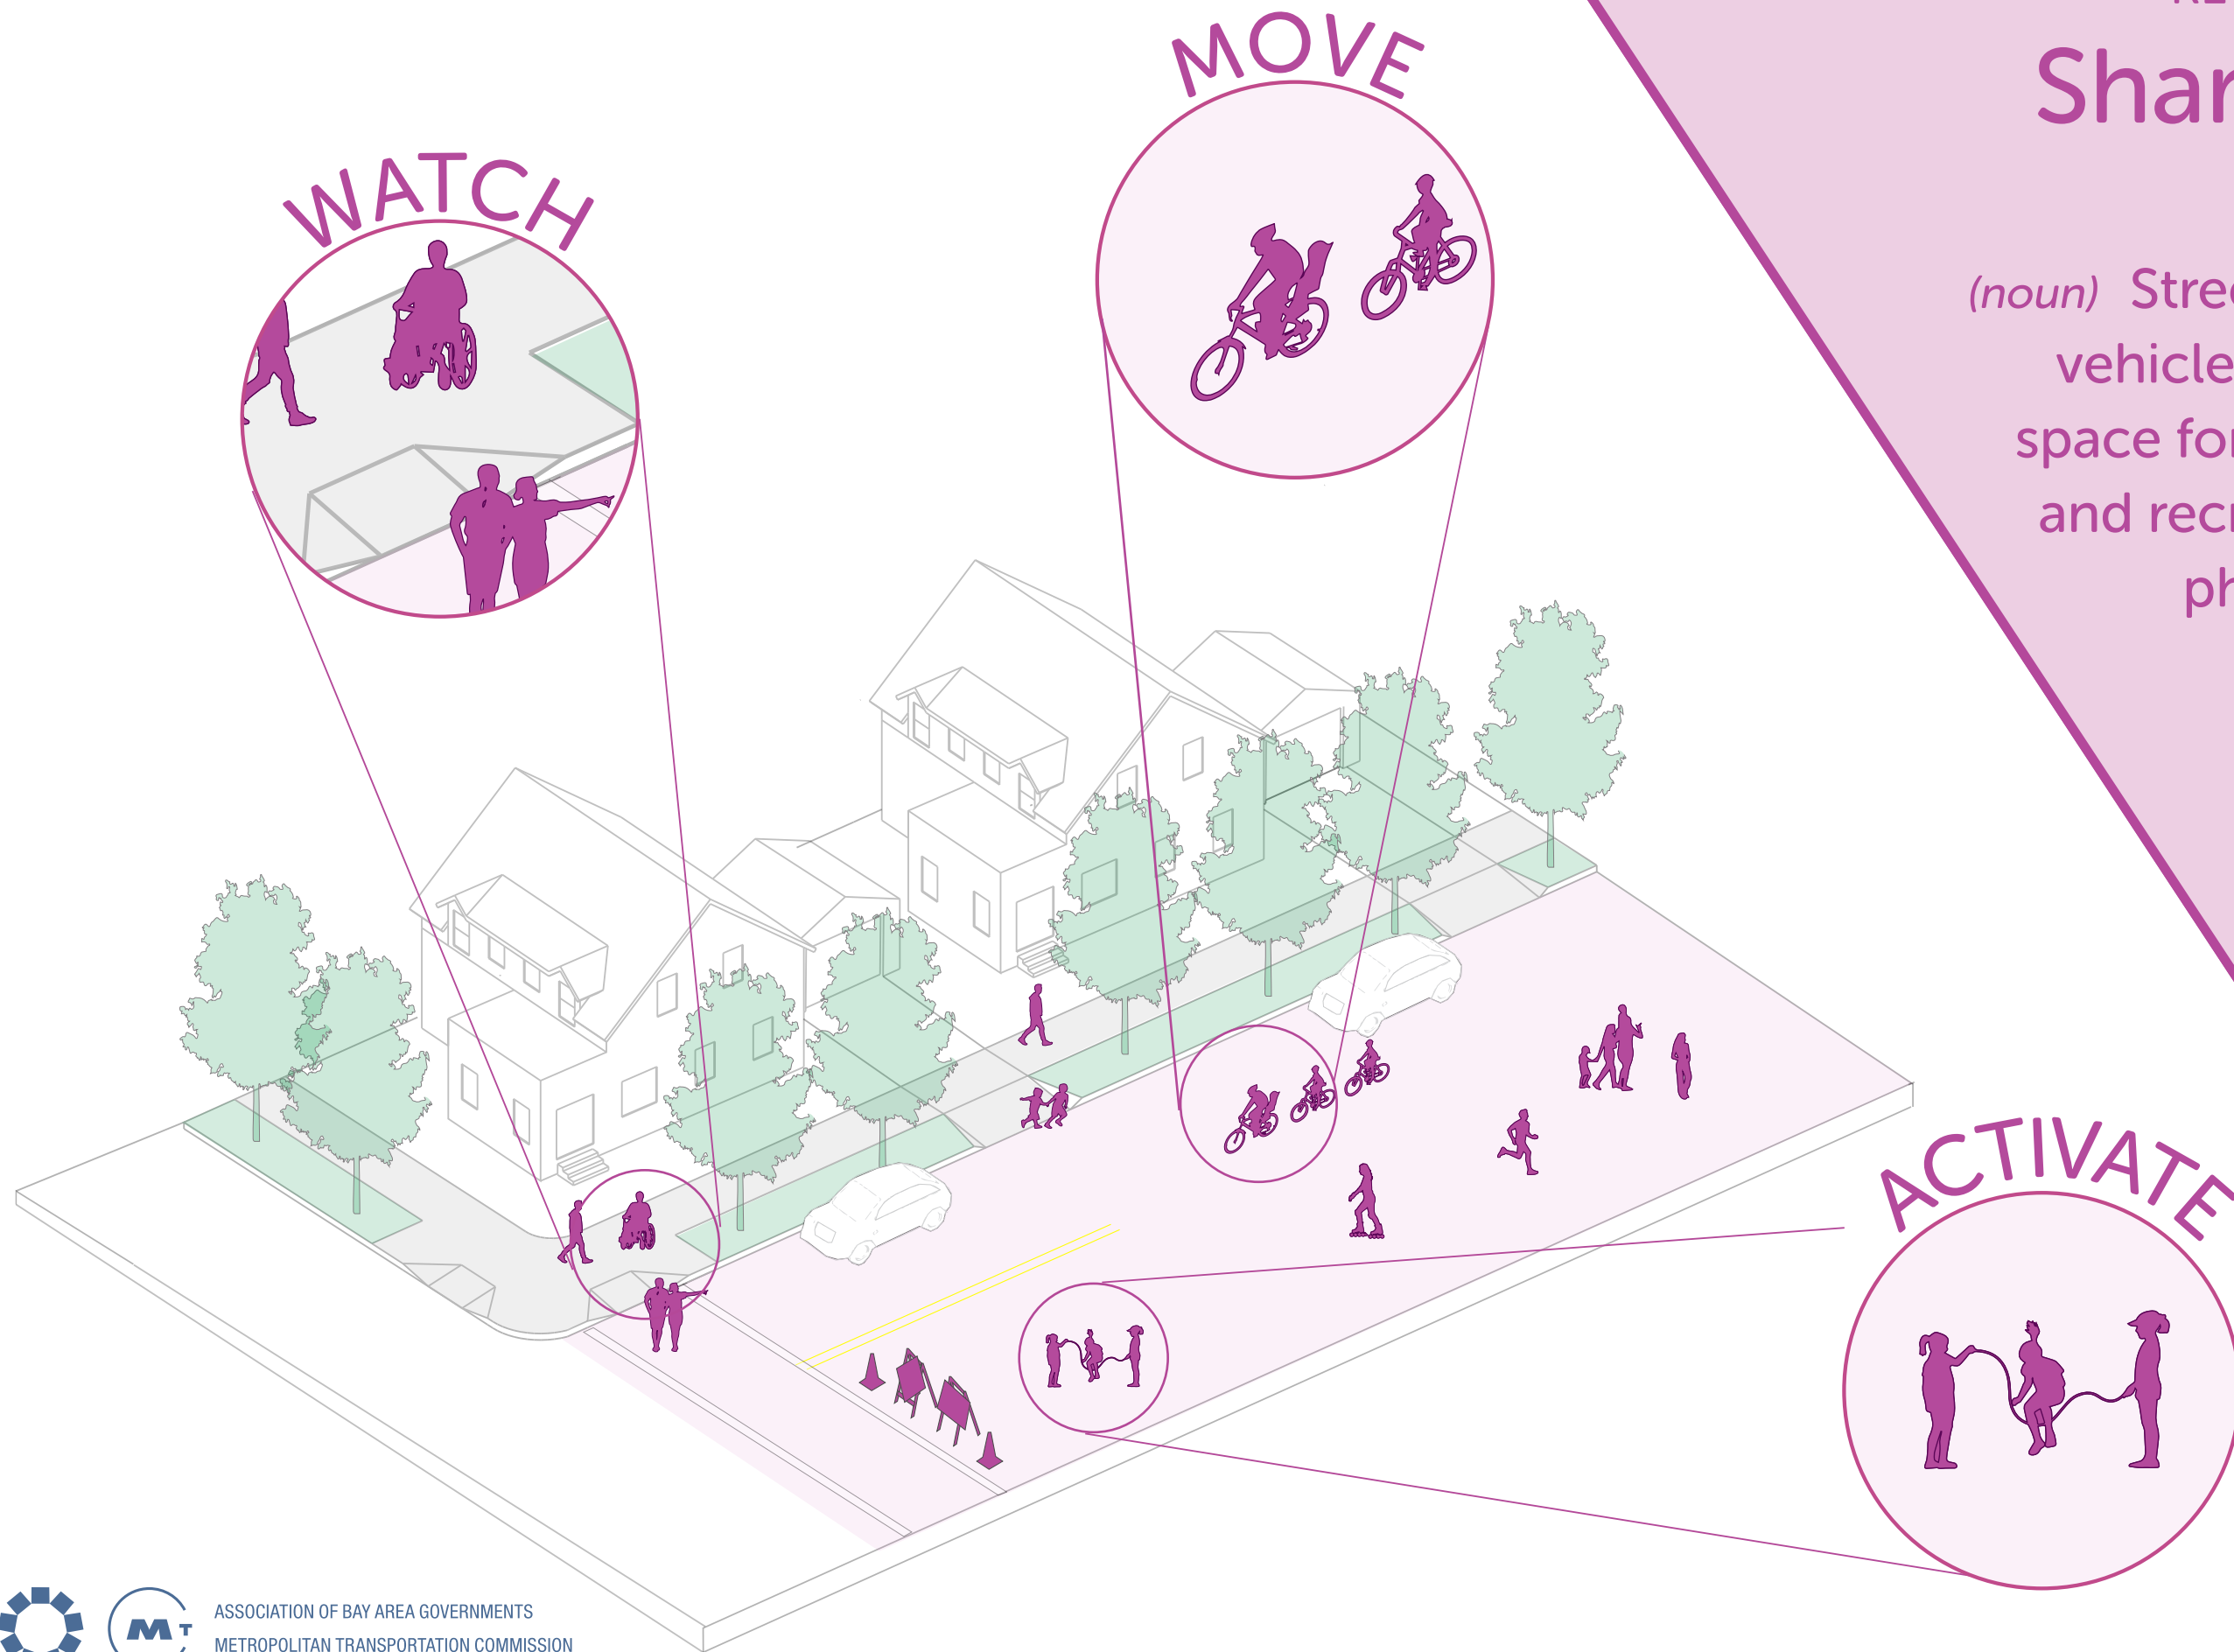

(noun) Street closed to all vehicle traffic, providing car-free space for people to move and recreate safely using physical distancing

Shared Street

shārd strēt

(noun) Street with only local vehicle traffic, providing space for people to move and recreate safely using physical distancing

WATCH

MOVE

ACTIVATE

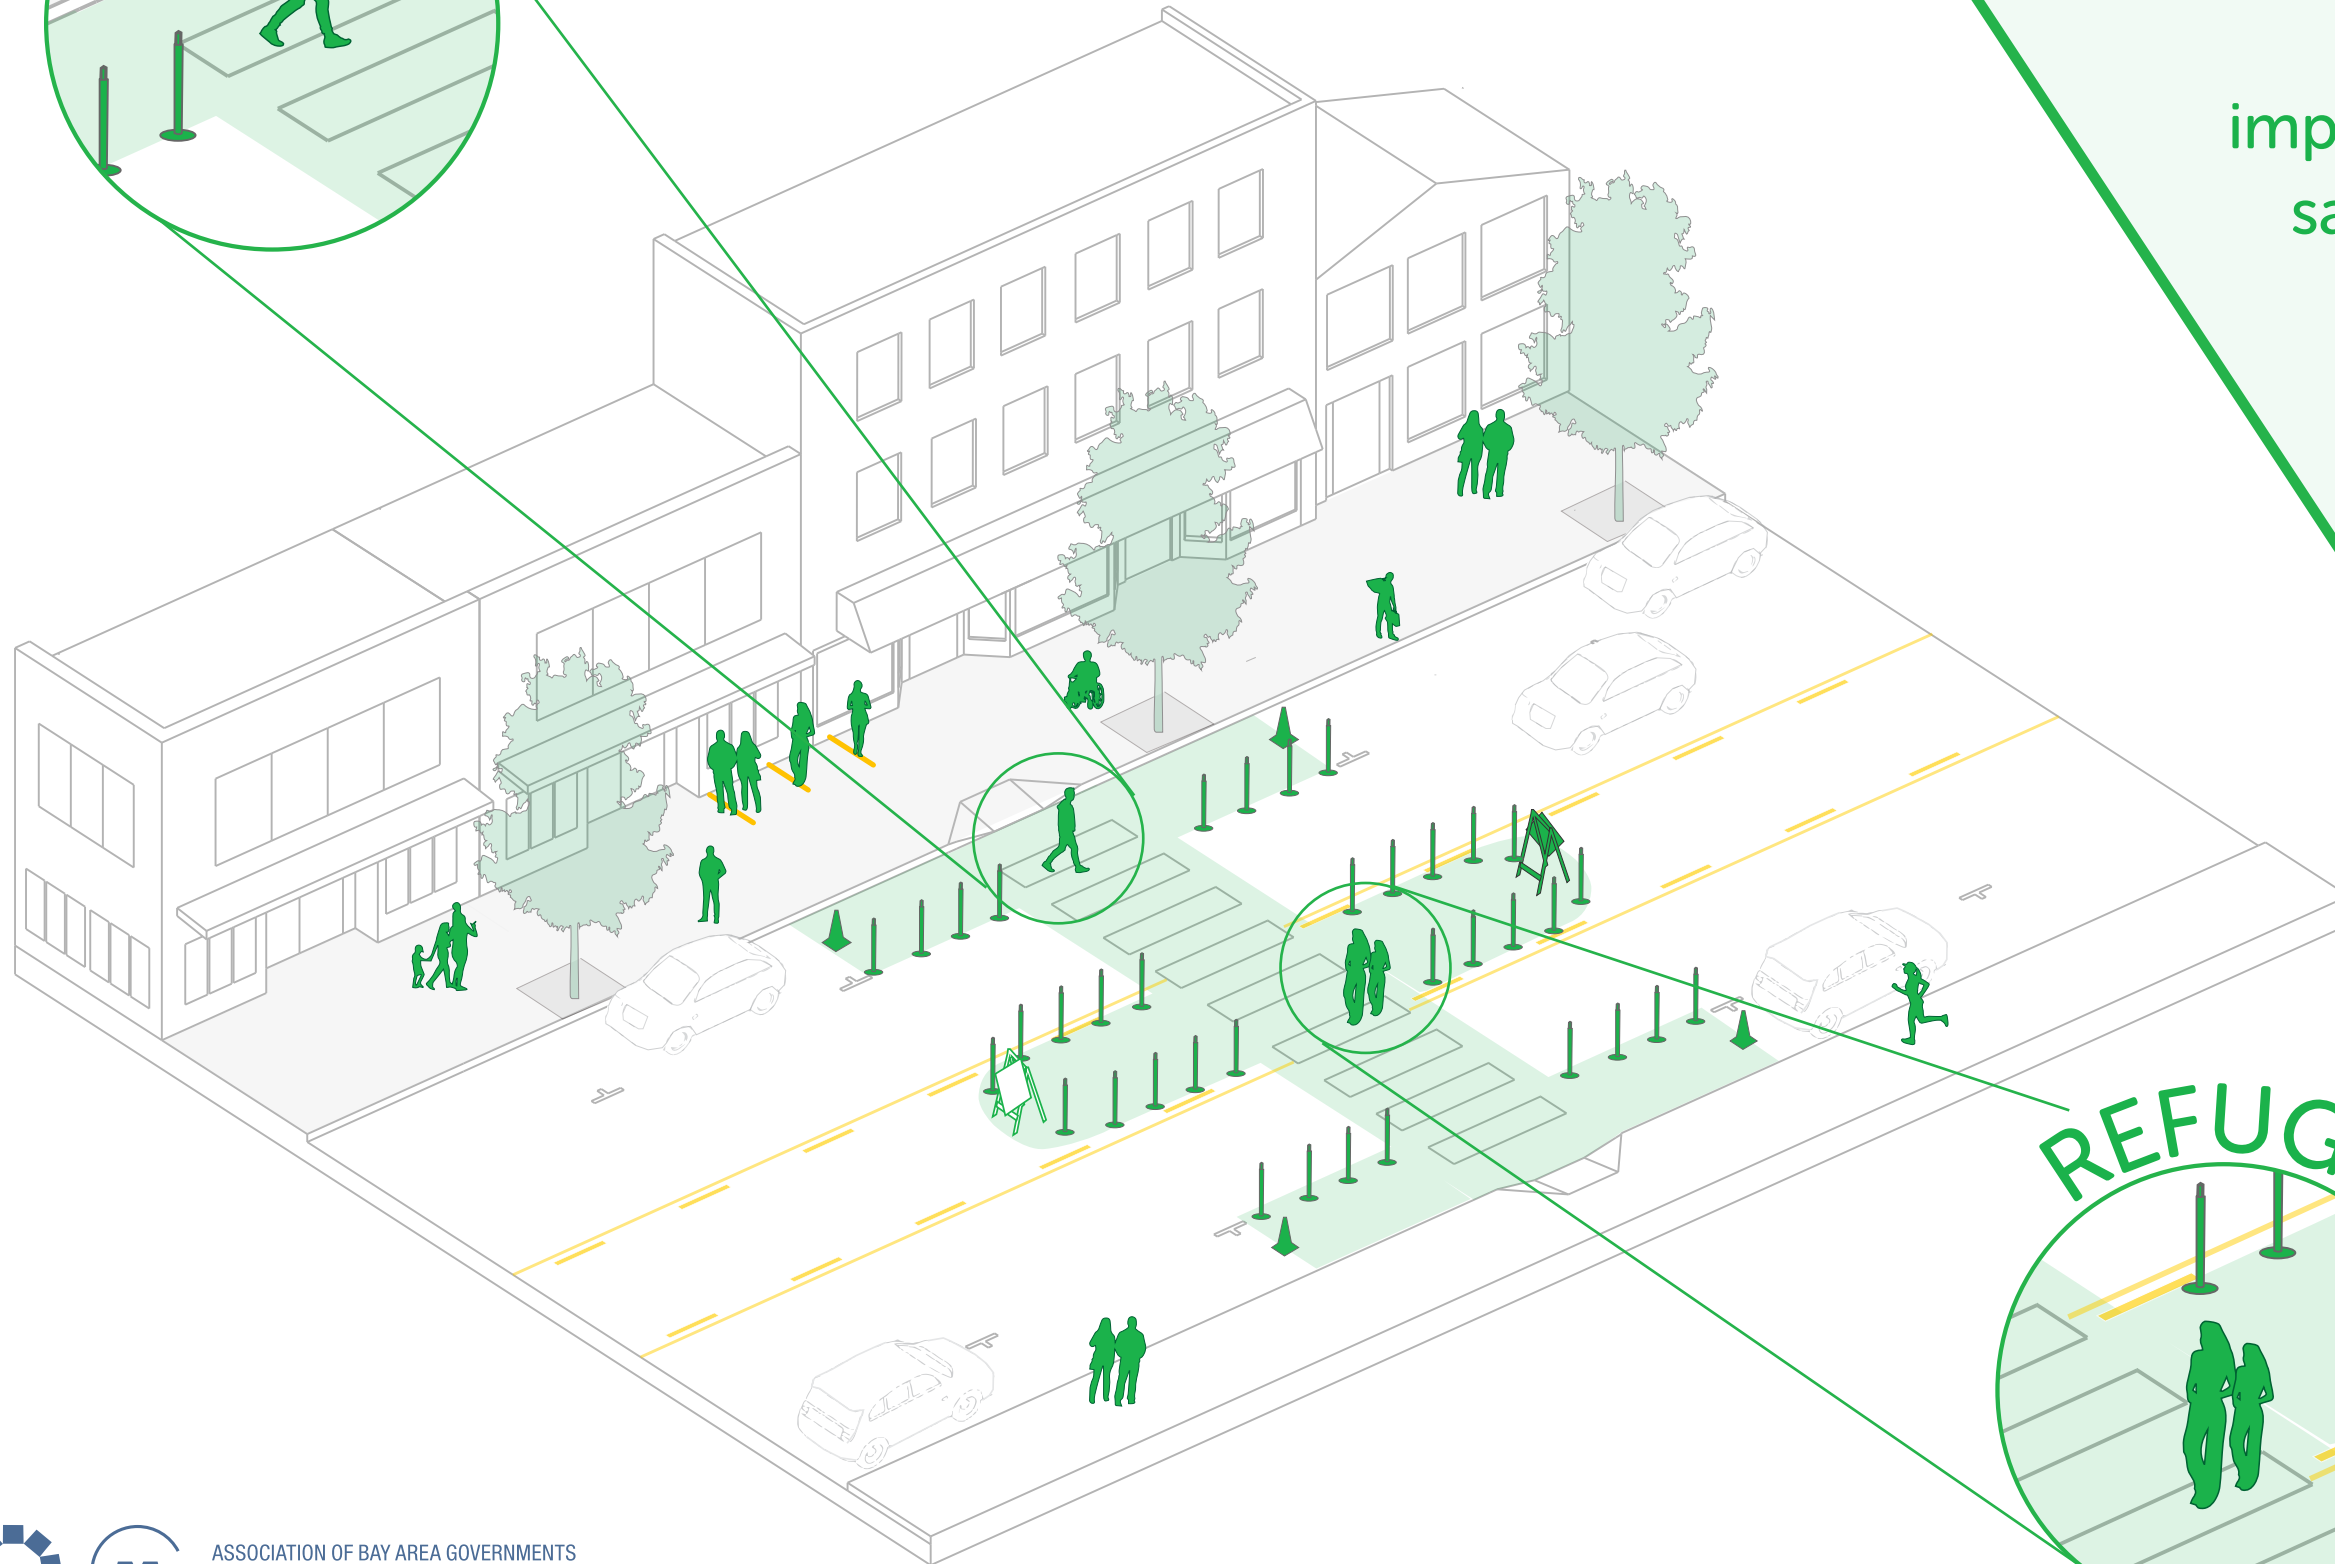

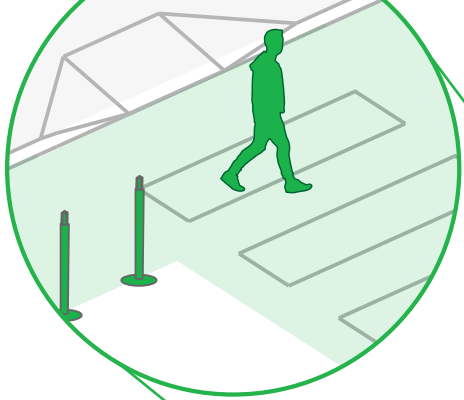

Essential Places

ə·sen·(t)hsəl plā·siz

(noun) Traffic safety improvements that provide safe pedestrian access to essential services such as grocery stores and medical offices

PROTECT

REFUGE

